GOV. COLQUITT WINS IN ALAMO SUIT

Austin, Tex., April 30.—The Supreme court today, in a unanimous opinion written by Chief Justice T. J. Brown, sustained Gov. Colquitt in the controversy over the restoration of the Alamo and held that the injunction given the Daughters of the Republic restraining Dr. A. B. Conley, state superintendent of public buildings and grounds from proceeding with the work of remodeling the Alamo property along plans made by the governor was improperly granted. It is ordered that the injunction be dissolved and that judgment be entered that the plaintiff, the corporation, the Daughters of the Republic, take nothing by this suit, and that plaintiff in error go hence without pay and recover of the Daughters of the Republic all costs of the several courts.

The effect of the decision of the highest court in Texas is that the governor may proceed with the work of restoring the Alamo property according to his plans.

May Day Parade in Gotham.

New York, May 1.—May Day was observed in the metropolis today by the customary parade of the Socialist organizations and various East Side trades unions. The parade started from Rutgers Square in the early afternoon and proceeded through Broadway and several other of the prominent downtown thoroughfares. Many of the trades were represented by men wearing distinctive uniforms. A feature of the bakers' division that attracted much attention was a wagon bearing a loaf of bread baked from three barrels of flour and a cake of like dimensions.

HOUSE PASSES REDISTRICTING BILL

Oklahoma City, Ok., April 30.—A faint ray of hope that the Fourth Legislature would enact a congressional reapportionment bill was reflected when the house of representatives today passed a final roll call the measure that had been agreed upon in democratic caucus. The vote was 57 to 27, but the emergency failed for want of the constitutional number. Some promise was given by senators tonight that a satisfactory bill would be worked through caucus of that body, and if the houses reach anything approaching an agreement Gov. Cruce will submit the question by special message.

The house bill calls for seven Democratic districts and one republican district, the latter being in Northwestern Oklahoma, and this arrangement drew a vigorous protest from democratic members from counties embraced within the district of political color. Mr. Vosburgh of Woodward, speaking for the republican minority, offered a substitute bill that proposed to give the dominant party six districts without question and hold two for the republicans. In supporting this bill Mr. Vosburgh declared it was in the interest of the taxpayer, and that the legislature had better have a care how it treated the men who were paying the bills.

Canadian Women in Council.

Montreal, May 1.—Club women from every section of the Dominion have gathered in Montreal for the twentieth annual meeting of the National Council of Women of Canada, which had its formal opening today. The sessions will last an entire week, during which time well known speakers from the United States as well as Canada will be heard on subjects of live importance, such as woman suffrage, prison reform, compulsory education and the care of the feeble minded. Dinners, receptions and other features of social entertainment will intersperse the business sessions.

W. A. Hill, representing A. D. Shrewsbury and company of Little Rock, Ark., says that the impression which has gone forth that he is no longer interested in the Dan Hayes Addition is wholly erroneous; that the company will soon erect about one dozen modern cottages on their lots, and that he is in position to sell these places on the easy payment plan. Furthermore he is able to sell you a lot and build you a home to your liking in the same way. 21-tf

ANNIVERSARY OF BATTLE OF MANILA

Washington, D. C., May 1.—Today is the fifteenth anniversary of the momentous battle of Manila Bay, that brilliant victory of the American fleet under Admiral, then only Commodore Dewey, which led to such far reaching changes in the policy of the United States. It was at the beginning of the conflict between Spain and the United States, following the destruction of the battleship Maine in the harbor of Havana. When war was declared the American fleet under Commodore Dewey, which had been ordered away from Hong Kong by the British authorities, made a quick dash across the South China sea and headed straight for Manila, the most important port of the Philippine Islands. On the morning of May 1, 1898, just before dawn, the American fleet, under cover of the darkness and regardless of the mines in the channel, steamed into the inner harbor and at sunrise opened fire upon the Spanish fleet, completely destroying every one of the enemy's ships, without the loss of a single man on the American side. The Spanish fleet suffered a loss of more than 400 officers and men killed or wounded.

THE MISSISSIPPI FLOODS IN LOUISIANA

Vidalia, La., May 1.—The Mississippi river flood spread further inland Wednesday through the crevasses near Mayersville, Miss., and at Gibson's Landing, La., but made little or no headway in its attack on the standing embankments. Encouraging reports of levees holding and the situation at no point especially acute were received Wednesday night from all points along the waterway south of Greenville, Miss. At Greenville the dike showed signs of weakening late last night, but the damage was repaired Wednesday and that point is declared no longer considered endangered.

Water let in by the break near Gibson's Landing is spreading slowly over the rich plantation lands of Concordia and adjoining parishes. Harrisonburg, a town of 500 inhabitants, and several villages were submerged Wednesday. Hundreds of refugees were taken from the overflowed territory to Natchez, Miss., across the river from Vidalia today. The greater number of these found shelter at the refuge camp established in that city, while others were lodged in private homes or took advantage of reduced rates offered by hotels and boarding houses.

Reports from the territory inundated by water from the Mayersville crevasse show conditions improved. Relief parties have explored all of the flooded sections and refugees, camped on the ridges or levee banks, supplied with rations and fodder for the livestock. Water coming through this break is flowing back into the Mississippi through the Sunflower river.

HOUSE KILLS UNIVERSITY APPROPRIATION BILL

Oklahoma City, May 1.—The house of representatives Wednesday killed the state university appropriation bill, largely owing to the opposition of the "farmer" contingent to an item of $125,000 for a science building. The vote on final roll call was 42 to 42, or eight less than the necessary fifty votes for passage.

Speaker Maxey, who has taken the University appropriations under his wing, due to the fact that he was a member of the first class, changed his vote to be in a position to lodge a motion to reconsider, and there is still a faint hope that the bill will be passed in its present form.

There is no opposition in the house to the other items of $200,000 per annum for maintenance, $15,000 per annum for university extension work; $75,000 for a power plant; and $13,950 for repairs.

It is understood, however, that if the bill is ever turned back over to committee of the whole, a strong effort will be made by several members to compel an itemization of the maintenance funds, with the view of fixing the salaries of the president, deans and professors.

A part of the "itemization" movement includes an intention to attempt to reduce the salary of the president to $4,000 per annum. He is now receiving $7,500 under terms fixed by the board of education.

Friends of the bill have not yet decided whether to attempt to push the bill through as it is on reconsideration, or to eliminate the science building appropriation.

A card from Shawnee this morning stated that Otis Weaver is still slowly improving. The surgeon has again postponed the third operation which has been thought would have to be performed. Mrs. P. J. Rollow, who has been in the hospital for the past ten days, is improving rapidly.

ABOUT THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY

In view of the fact that some opposition to the Carnegie library is said to exist, and being desirous that every one be given a hearing on the subject, the News will give space to letters from both sides. The only stipulation is that they be short and that the name of the writer appear signed to each letter published.

Editor Veatch of the Remonstrator comes back and shows his defiance of the libel suits brought against him on account of his publication of the article relating to the cause of Wayland's suicide and publishes it again. He declares he will prove every word of it if they ever bring him into court; that he has the facts all salted down ready for use. It is now the Appeal's move. At all events, Veatch does not seem to be very easily scared.

We have seen seven springs in Oklahoma and the present one is by far the most favorable of all. The weather has been good with plenty of sunshine to bring up crops and make them grow, and the farmers have not been slow to take advantage of it. It is unanimously agreed that there was never a time when they were better up with their work than now. With so many encouraging reports coming in the News feels hopeful of the bumper crop that is needed to place this section on the level where it properly belongs.

AS THE ROFF EAGLE VIEWS IT.

Senator Roddie expressed the sentiment in the senate last week that the education institutions threatened abolition should all stand or fall together. We don't believe the people of the state as a whole will view it in this light. We doubt the wisdom of such a policy on the part of the educational towns as in the final analysis the people will judge each institution on the record it has made. We are reliably informed that the Ada Normal is second only to Edmond in attendance and to none in work accomplished. Since the abolition sentiment contemplates the elimination of only three normals it seems to us that Ada can go before the people of the state on her merits and win. With thinking people the all for one, one for all talk sounds like an attempt to bolster up a weak cause. There is no question but some of the schools will have hard sledding, and for a school that can show reasons for its retention to ally itself with its weaker sisters is merely inviting disaster, as a chain is no stronger than its weakest link. It always pays to give the people credit for doing the square thing and we believe that if the Ada Normal goes squarely before the people on her own merits and with no other schools to apologize for, the battle will be half won, and the thinking people of the state will do the rest.—Roff Eagle.

The people who wait to climb the band wagon until it gets under the plumb tree are not apt to get much fruit.—Muskogee Times-Democrat.

MUST PAY INTEREST ON GOVERNMENT MONEY

Washington, April 30.—One of the first of the important administrative departures of the Wilson administration was announced this afternoon by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo when he made public the circular putting banks on notice that beginning June 1 all United States deposits will have to draw interest at the rate of 2 per cent per annum on monthly balances to be credited twice annually. At the same time Secretary McAdoo announced that the government will place in the banks deposits aggregating $10,000,000 in addition to the $42,649,964 which the government now has out on deposit in various parts of the country.

The decision to require government depositories to pay interest on all public deposits, whether active or inactive, regular or temporary, is based on authority given in the so-called Vreeland-Aldrich emergency currency act of May 30, 1908, and is in line with the sentiment of democratic leaders in congress. Secretary McAdoo's action is likewise in line with the movement inaugurated in congress in 1912 by Senator Pomerene and Representative Goeke of Ohio, which seeks to procure the enactment of legislation to require all National banks which desire to have the use of government deposits to bid competitively for public funds, the deposits to be made to the highest bidders.

By MOIKE CASSIDY

Preparations for the track meet are practically complete. Thirteen schools have entered more than one hundred representatives in the various events. The bulk of these contestants are in the track and field events and the rest are entered in the piano and declamation and in tennis.

The track is being rolled and sprinkled and is going to be fast. Since this is the first meet of this kind on our campus there are no records for the athletes to beat, but they will put forth every effort to establish records that will stand for years to come.

The Piano and Declamation contest that is to begin Friday night at 7:30 has been entered by a number of classy speakers and performers, several of whom being winners in contests elsewhere.

A ticket admitting to any and all of these contests is being sold for 35 cents. Single admissions are 25 cents. The 35 cent tickets will be sold up to noon Saturday. They can be purchased at Mad-Ox Drug store and Gwin & Mays.

The Edmond bunch did get here and we expect to beat them both games. Although they have some husky team. Don't forget that the games starts tomorrow at 2 o'clock on account of the boys going back at 4 o'clock.

The "nigger" minstrels are working hard now. It will, without a question, of doubt be the best thing ever pulled off by amateur players. May 19 is the date so think about it in the mean time.

Indian Timepiece Unearthed.

Spokane, Wash., May 1.—While excavating on the old Indian battle ground at Kamiah, Idaho, workmen unearthed a rudely carved, oblong stone said to have served as an Indian timepiece before the whites introduced clocks or watches to this part of the country. The ancient timepiece is now in the offices of a Spokane engineering company. Kip-Kip-Pelican, the oldest Indian on the Nez Perce reservation, explains that the stone was used by the tribesmen for marking time before even the white traders had penetrated to this section. He said it was between 200 and 300 years old. Two miles distant from the place that held the stone, workmen unearthed an old frying pan, a horse-shoe magnet, a home-made knife blade eight inches long, and a number of crudely fashioned pieces of metal. These had been buried for years, rust having almost consumed the most of them.

The Edmond ball team arrived this morning and at 4 o'clock the game with the Ada bunch was called. In tomorrow's paper the News expects to chronicle another sweeping victory for the home team, but the Edmond team looks like it might be able to make it interesting for Ada.

COUNTY OFFICES WILL BE CONSOLIDATED

Oklahoma City, May 1.—The bill consolidating county officers is now ready for the action of the governor as soon as it can be enrolled, the house Wednesday morning agreeing to the senate amendments after some discussion. The chief objections to the senate amendments were made by Representatives Wyand and Emanuel, who objected to consolidating the county clerk and register of deeds under the head of the former instead of calling the combined officer the register of deeds. They stated that most of the abstracts in the state would have to be changed, entailing a big expense if the office was called county clerk.

The bill as finally passed by both houses will save about $150,000 a year to the state according to the estimate of its friends. It combines in all counties of the state the offices of county clerk and consolidates the offices of clerk of the county court, district court and superior court, in counties where there is a superior court, under one head known as the court clerk. The consolidations do not become effective until January 1, 1915.

Had to Stay With His Train.

There were two passengers on the Rough and Ready yesterday who wanted to make connections with a southbound train out of Ardmore and shortly after the train they were or left Madill, one of the two, who, by the way, had been consulting his watch every minute or two, impatiently asked the conductor: "Can't you make any better time than you are at present making?" And the conductor, with an air of martyrdom, answered: "Sure, fellows, but I've got to stay with the train."—Ardmoreite.

NOTES of SPORTDOM

The fater of Miller Huggins, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, died in Cincinnati recently.

Honus Wagner believes that Everett Booe, now with the Pirates, is the coming star infielder in the major leagues.

The boy Weisman, the tallest pitcher in the big show, is doing some beautiful finging for the St. Louis Browns.

Dick Hoblitzell, the Cincinnati Reds' first sacker, is in fine form and out to duplicate his great work of last year.

Eddie Collins, of the Athletics, is a real "fence buster" at the present time, with a batting average of between .600 and .650 per cent.

Winning the first six games of the season gave Charlie Carr's Kansas City Blues a good start in the American Association pennant race.

Larry Lajoie is one of the oldest players under the big top today, but he is still able to clout the ball away out yonder, and then some.

Tim Jordan, the Toronto first baseman, was credited with eighteen of the twenty-four putouts registered by his team, in a recent game at Newark.

If the Athletics continue to slaughter American League teams, they will be so far out in front by July 4, that they can stop and rest up for the world's series.

"Death Valley" Jim Scott has surprised Chicago fans with his classy pitching for the White Sox. Jim was in poor condition last year, but looks like a winner this season.

It begins to look as if the Boston Braves were again doomed for the cave. Stallings will have to do a heap of figuring if he succeeds in bringing his crew to the surface.

Pitcher Fallenberg and Catcher Carisch, of the Cleveland Naps, form a genuine "come back" battery. Both were formerly with the Naps, but performed with Toledo last season.

Pitcher "Dutch" Klawitter looks strong enough to land a regular berth with the Detroit Tigers. He had a trial with the Ginals a couple of years ago, and last season pitched for the Portland team of the Pacific Coast league.

Up-to-date Manager Johnny Evers, of the Cubs, has had a little more on his old pals. Frank Chance and Joe Tinker. The Cubs have been displaying better wares than either Tinker's Reds or the "Peerless Leaders" Highlanders.

With the Boxers.

Tommy Murphy received $4,000 for his bit in his battle with Ad Wolgast.

Eddie McGoorty is now under the management of Rudie Unholz, the Boer lightweight.

Bud Anderson, who recently put Knock Out Brown to sleep, will meet Joe Mandot at Vernon, Calif., May 20. A battle between Luther McCarty and "Gunboat" Smith would no doubt be the biggest drawing card that could be staged at the present time.

tion of 200,000-horsepower, but it has been difficult to impress the fact upon people that some of the things done in this undertaking are bigger than the same kind of things at Panama.

The dam that now harnesses the Mississippi is the biggest of its kind in the world, the powerhouse is the largest ever built, and the lock which the government required the engineers to build around the dam is bigger than those of the Panama Canal, and the dry dock alongside is large enough to accommodate practically all the steamboats that were navigating the Upper Mississippi last fall.

The Gatun lock at Panama is considered an exceptionally big engineering achievement of its kind, yet the Keokuk lock is just as wide (110 feet) and has a lift of 40 feet whereas the lift at Panama is 28 feet 4 inches.

The steel gates at the lower end of the lock weigh 1,000,000 pounds each, and are so thick that two wagons could pass each other at the top edge. —Popular Mechanics.

This evening the Majestic will give a very entertaining program of three numbers. The first is "The Game Warden," which is a thrilling story of life among primitive people. The next is "Trixie and the Press Agent" The third is "The Infernal Pig," a Pathe comedy. Coming soon: "The Millionaire Cowboy."

Bill Kennedy, the hot air artist of the Western Newspaper Union, was a caller at the News office today and handed out his usual line of which he is a past master. When he went away it was with a broad smile across his classical countenance, for he had managed to talk a good bill out of the News. Besides his specialty, Bill is a first class chicken raiser, or first class raiser of chickens, as a side line.

This evening the De Sota will present a two-reel war story entitled: "The Sinews of War." This picture features the siege of Richmond during the civil war. In course of the scene Gens. Lee and Grant are shown and many historical features of the great struggle for possession of the capital of the Confederacy are shown in this matchless picture.

NO PARTICULARS OF

L. B. BALLEW'S DEATH

M. F. Ballew informs the News that he has been unable to get any particulars of the death of his son L. B. Ballew, which occurred Sunday in Nevada. Monday he received a wire from Bowie, Nevada, to the effect that his son had been struck by a train and dangerously injured. Two hours later a second message came from Elko saying that he was dead. Beyond this none of the facts of the tragedy are known.

The young man was only 25 years of age. He had been at work for some time as telegraph operator at Grant, Nevada. Coming as it did his death was a great shock to his family. M. F. Ballew, the father, has been foreman of the Ada section of the Katy for the past five years, and the young man himself was well and favorably known here.

Spilling Children.

Little children give their mother the headache; but if she lets them have their own way, when they grow up to be great children they will give her the heartache. Fondness spoils many, and letting little faults alone spoils more. Gardens that are never weeded will grow very little worth gathering. All watering and no hoeing will make a very bad crop. A child may have too much of its mother's love and in the long run it may turn out that it had too little.—C. H. Spurgeon.

"This Is My 67th Birthday"—Wharton Barker.

Wharton Barker, noted as a financier and publicist, was born in Philadelphia, May 1, 1846, and was educated at the University of Pennsylvania. By the general public Mr. Barker is perhaps best remembered as the Populist candidate for president in 1900, but in addition to this his activities have been numerous and varied. For many years he has been engaged in the banking business in Philadelphia and has made a study of financial and economic problems. Some thirty years ago he acted as financial agent for the Russian government in the building of several warships in America and also in the development of coal and iron mines in Russia. Subsequently he obtained valuable railroad and other concessions from the Chinese government. In politics Mr. Barker has taken an equally active part. Until 1896 he was a Republican and as such he managed the Garfield nomination campaign in 1880 and took a prominent part in the Harrison campaign eight years later. Mr. Barker has traveled in all parts of the world and has taken an active interest in all movements for the extension of American commerce abroad.

Truth About Proud Man.

"When a woman gets frightened at night she just pulls the bed clothes over her head, and goes to sleep," says one who knows, "but with a man it is different. He says he is not afraid, pushes the clothes down and lies trembling awake for two or three hours, straining his ears at every sound."

Raccoons Natural Thieves.

If you have raccoons in your home, keep a watchful eye on all articles within reach of the animals. They will steal anything from a pocket knife to a diamond ring. Notwithstanding the trouble necessitated by guarding against the mischievous habits of the creatures, they are members of many households. They are fond of milk, and will resort to all sorts of tricks and subterfuges to obtain it.

Sample of German Ingenuity.

In Germany, says the Scientific American, wood is too expensive to be burned, and it is made into artificial silk worth $2 a pound and bristles worth $4 a pound; into paper, yarn, twine, carpet, canvas and cloth. From sawdust parquet flooring is made; the materials for this may be bought by the pound and then mixed, so that the householder can lay his own hardwood floors according to his individual taste and ingenuity.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PUPILS

OBSERVE MAY DAY

The May Day program rendered on the school grounds by the pupils of the High school building Wednesday afternoon was an event that will be long remembered by the young participants. The little folks had been well drilled and entered heartily into the spirit of the occasion. The costumes of the children in the various events were varied and in keeping with the celebration.

The opening feature was the march from the building to the grounds. The procession was headed by the May Queen, borne on a throne by several of the larger boys. After her majesty had been seated on the throne arranged in front of the grounds the children were lined up and a photo made by Mr. West.

Then followed May pole dances, tam bourine drills, folk dances, hoop drills songs, flag drills and other features. The last events were potato and sack races by the smaller pupils, a tug of war and races by the intermediate and grammar grades and some practice work by the track team which won the honors at Roff and expect to do likewise at the normal meet.

In this connection the News would compliment those husky looking boys with vigorous bodies and alert minds. They have placed the silver cup won at Roff in a glass case and will put up a game fight to keep it there.

The occasion was well attended by patrons and friends of the public schools. The pupils of the other schools were also present and those of the training department of the normal were on hand to witness the fun.

The Mothers' club has undertaken to raise funds with which to purchase a piano for the school and on this occasion served cold drinks and ice cream, netting a neat sum.

Agricultural Teachers Wanted.

Washington, April 30.—The United States Bureau of Education today issued an appeal for agricultural teachers in high schools. The bureau incidentally pointed out that while the salaries of the majority of male teachers in the high schools average only $700, the teachers of agriculture were receiving $1,200.

"Lack of teachers" is the explanation offered by the bureau as the cause for the higher remuneration for those who teach agriculture. "Not only is it found that the average pay of instructors in agriculture is higher than that of other teachers," says the bureau, "but that teachers who are able to give such instruction in addition to regular work command better salaries than they otherwise would, and are more likely to be advanced to principalships than if they had not specialized in agriculture."
